Ten Selected '54 Favorites

Ten TJC students won the 1954 title of favorites by popular vote of the student body in a recent election.

Roland Head and Jimmy Douglas are the 1954 all-college favorites. Sophomore class favorites are Sue Ann Nelson, Elizabeth Ellis, E. C. Holt, and Billy Wayne Andrews.

Freshman favorites are Toni Powers, Jet Droby, Bubba Harris, and Mickey Koonce.

Roland is from Tyler and is beauty nominee for the sophomore class. He is editor of the 1953 Apache yearbook, a member of Sans Souci Sorority, an Apache Belle, and a member of the Pow Wow Staff.

Douglas, an Apache from Van, has played football at half-back for the past two seasons.

Sue Ann's home is Hawkins. She is the reigning Miss Tyler, Apache Princess for the band, Student Council beauty nominee, and secretary of the Student Council.

Elizabeth is from Frankston and is majoring in home economics. She is secretary of the sophomore class and is a member of the band, To-Kalon Sorority, Phi Theta Kappa, and the choir.

Holt, whose home is Tyler, is majoring in Business Administration and is planning to enter Texas U. next year. He was president of the freshman class last year and a member of the choir.

Andrews is from Malakoff and has played halfback for TJC during two seasons. He transferred to Trinity U. at mid-term but has recently been drafted into the Army.

Toni's home is Dallas. Besides her duties as Cheerleader, she is an Apache Belle and sweetheart of Kappa Sigma Lambda.

Harris is from Center and is majoring in business. He is a candidate for Phi Theta Kappa and played quarter back on the Apache football team during the past season.

Koonce, who is from Tyler, was center on the football team during the fall. He is vice-president of the freshman class.

1500 Expected To Attend Third Annual Career Day

Plans have been completed for an all time high of more than 1500 students to attend the third annual TJC Career Day. Students have been invited from 31 East Texas high schools to take part in Career Day activities, Friday, March 5.

Senior Career Day, now a familiar date on almost every college and university calendar in Texas, is designed to assist graduating seniors in choosing their vocations.

Visiting seniors at TJC will be offered expert counseling by business and professional men, Dr. H. E. Jenkins, president, said. These men will talk to the students and tell them the good and bad points of their particular profession. Students may also receive personal counseling if desired. These conferences are open to present college students as well as the visiting seniors.

The band, belles, dance band, and the Apache Four quartette will entertain the students in the gym prior to the conference in a 40-minute performance, "College Capers."

A chicken dinner, picnic style in the gym, will again be served as courtesy of friends and alumni of TJC to all seniors, sponsors, and other guests.

An added attraction this year will be conferences for the sponsors of the senior classes of the different high schools. Dr. Royal Embree from the University of Texas, conductor of these conferences, will iron out problems the sponsors may have in helping their seniors plan careers.

In 1952, 600 students attended the first annual career day, and in 1953 the number increased to 1200, double the previous year. By 1955, 2000 students are expected to attend these conferences.

Invitations were sent to these high school in the TJC area:

Lindale, Tyler, Palestine, Arp, Hawkins, Winona, Mineola, Jacksonville, Chandler, Whitehouse, Big Sandy, Chapel Hill, Troup, Rusk, New Summerfield, Frankston, Alba, Emory, Bullard, Quitman, Winnsboro, Grand Saline, Canton, Van, Gaston, Martins Mill, Diaville, Point, Golden, Yantis, Carlisle, and Henderson.

"We as students of Tyler Junior College should make the visiting high school boys and girls feel like this is the friendliest college in the United States. By doing this we will make them want to come here, and we'll be helping to keep TJC the best of junior colleges," urged Jack Barron, a TJC freshman.

Early Filing Urged For All Selective Service Applicants

All eligible TJC students who intend to take the Selective Service College Qualification Test in 1954 should file applications at once for the April 22 administration. Selective Service National Headquarters advised today.

An application and a bulletin of information may be obtained at any Selective Service local board. Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application immediately and mail it in the special envelope provided.

Applications must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 8, 1954. Early filing will be greatly to the student's advantage.

Results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student, according to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test.

Reporter's Report

Seen the name of your club in the Pow Wow recently? If the answer is No, it may not be entirely the staff's fault.

Staff reporters are assigned to cover activities of all clubs, yet many times they aren't able to contact your organization.

Most clubs elect reporters not merely to act as officers but also as medians to report all news of the organization to the Pow Wow. If no reporter is elected, the sponsor should take upon himself the initiative to see that his club gets its activities in print.

Often news is more important before the actual date of occurrence. A schedule of Pow Wow issues is set up in the Journalism Lab. Drop by and copy the schedule so that you can get coming news into the paper.

Apaches, remind your sponsor or reporter to turn in all news to any member of the Pow Wow staff.

APACHE DOWNBEAT

by F. MIRIAM HART

Anything from college jazz interpretations to professional expression of opera can be found on the TJC campus.

All regular Tee-peeologists have heard the TJC combo consisting of "Bo" Williams, trumpet; J. V. Fagg, trombone; Larry Alexander, string bass; "Pinky" Fowler, clarinet; and Fred Buchanan, drums. When the quintet rips loose on standard jazz numbers in their own style, the click of dominoes stops, the din of the record player becomes less noticeable, the ping-pong ball bounces less noisily, and the crowd begins to gather.

While the regular band lost two fine players, James Thomas and Paul Clymore to the Air Force, it gained two others, James Weaver, clarinet, and Katherine Wacka, bass clarinet.

Another new band addition, yet not a regular member, is the little red-haired freshman, Maryhelen Baxter, new band librarian. Maryhelen graduated from Carlyle High last spring. She is in charge of all music in the band library, a tremendous job.

The choir's pledge for more members has been fulfilled. Fifteen new members have added their strength to the various sections, bringing the membership to 45.

Dates will be announced soon for the annual spring concert of the TJC choir. Last year in April the concert was held in the Woman's Building. The concert is the only school-sponsored choir program charging the public to see the organization perform, although the choir does have many other programs each year.

The entire choir is planning a short spring tour, said Stonecipher. These tours will be with the tour of the last year by the choir, primarily trips to towns in East Texas area.

performed as East Texas Regional Symphony Orchestra Tuesday evening, Feb. 2. His first number was "Eri Tu" from the "Masked Ball" by Verdi. In this aria Renato has discovered his wife to be unfaithful and is at the point of killing her. He stops when she begs to see her child once more. Repenting alone, Renato determines to kill his rival. In this celebrated piece, Mr. Stonecipher sings with mixed emotions, ranging from love to hate. He therefore must be able to feel within himself all these emotions to relay them to the audience. He made his expression of love for the wife with emphatic control yet unfaltering tenderness, then turned in a moment to a storm of rage and fury.

His second selection was "L'ultima Cazione" by Tosti, a tuneful serenade portraying the sentiments of a boy whose sweetheart is to be married to another. As in his interpretation of "Eri Tu", Mr. Stonecipher put his heart into the deep expression of love to the boy's lost sweetheart.

Apache Staff Mails Last Third Of Annual

The final one-third of the Apache yearbook pages is to be mailed March 1, said Miss Mildred Howell, sponsor, today.

With most of the work completed and the date for distribution set as around May 1, the staff feels that the '54 yearbook will be one of the best in the school's history.

The staff had little to say about the new features in the yearbook, other than the theme being the rose. All new features are to be kept as a surprise until students get their books.

In 1900 only about 18 per cent of the people of the United States lived outside their native states while in 1950 about 43 per cent lived outside their native states.

Library Adds New Books To Shelves

More than 100 colorful new books have been added to the Tyler Junior College Library since Christmas. These books are fiction, non-fiction and biographies, sports, and scientific.

Fiction includes such books as "Gold Mountain," "Wreck of the Running Gale," "Lady from Arlington," and "Caine Mutiny."

Non-fiction and biographies include such books as "Cyclone in Calico," the life story of Mary Ann Bickerdyke, "General Billy Mitchell," "Famous American Athletics of Today," "Triumph and Tragedy" by Sir Winston Churchill, and "How to Speak Better English."

For sports and scientific reading there are "Winning Baseball," "Better Basketball," "Our Fighting Jets," and "Report on the Atom."

There are many more exciting novels to be found on the Browsing Shelf near the magazine racks on the west wall of the library reading room.

Although George Washington usually is called the first president of the United States, John Hanson was elected president under the Continental Congress and signed documents as "President of the United States."

The Marine Corps Versus Me

By LAMAR LEWIS

Marine 'Boot' Learns Respect; Yearns For Candy; Eats Same

There just aren't too many laughable incidents in Marine Boot Camp — until you get out. Then you can remember and laugh at some things that were serious indeed at the time they happened.

The times you get slugged on the jaw by an angry drill instructor just because you were moving while you were supposed to be at "attention," or the time you were turned around and kicked in—the proper place for bestowing kicks—for getting out of step while marching are all incidents that are funny only now. No one, least of all you, was inclined to laugh when they were taking place. Either you were the victim or were afraid you were going to be the next one.

One thing did happen, however, that was funny enough to almost get me in a serious jam. We were having our first major inspection. Seventy-five men were standing rigidly at attention while a fierce looking major and one or two captains went down the ranks inspection rifles and asking silly question to which we were supposed to give sensible answers.

I had passed mine by the skin of my teeth and was watching out of the corner of my eye as the inspecting party stopped in front of Bill, who was farther down the line.

As it always is with buddies, you're just as anxious for him to get by as for yourself. Bill's rifle was inspected carefully. Not a speck of dirt on it. Bill's eyes brightened.

The major glared at him. "What is your rifle number?"

Without a second's hesitation Bill called it off. Then a grin broke out on his face like a little boy expecting a word of praise for doing so well. Bam, Bam!! The drill instructor beat a tattoo on Bill's head with his sun helmet. "Haven't you been taught to say Sir?"

Never have I seen such a look of pure astonishment and shock on anyone's face as I saw then. I almost exploded. But no matter how often I mentioned the subject to Bill afterward, he never could seem to get a laugh out of it.

The weeks seemed to drag by. Until we finished boot camp we were not allowed to visit the PX, much less leave the base. Those ten weeks seemed to drag on endlessly. The talk at night was of sweethearts at first. Then hamburgers, candy, and cokes gradually began to take preference in the bull sessions. A chocolate bar could have been sold for a fabulous price, but who had access to one?

Finally I had a brilliant idea. I wrote to a cousin in Los Angeles and told her to mail me a box of stationery. Under the stationery she was to pack cigarettes, and under the cigarettes, candy. The drill instructors opened all our packages but I didn't think he would look any farther than the stationery. At the most he would look at the cigarettes and think that was all.

A few days later I got a call to report to the drill instructor's tent on the double. When I entered I saw a package addressed to me on the desk. While I stood helplessly by the D. I. opened the package. There lay the stationery. He looked at me. "Is that all that it is?"

"Oh, yes, sir," I said in what I hoped was an unsuspicious manner.

He lifted out the paper. There lay ten packages of cigarettes. Hmmm! I began to sweat. Casually he began taking our cigarettes. My throat got dry and I began glancing around for a hole to sink into. Silence. Finally I dared to look back at the desk. There lay twenty glittering Her-

Aggies Dominate Apache Transfers

Students from A&M dominate the number of transfers from 14 colleges to TJC this semester.

Aggieanders led with 10 transfers, followed by 7 from Texas, 4 from East Texas, 3 from North Texas, 2 each from Stephen F. Austin, Baylor, SMU, and Oklahoma.

Arlington, Ind., Paris JC, Ohio State, Lasalle of Philadelphia, and University of Mass. contributed one transfer each.

Aggies are Stanley Archer, Bentley Black, Don Boyd, Ike Daniels, Buddy James, Ronald Joplin, George McDonald, John Mackey, Jon Maxwell, and Dan Whiteside.

A&M students heaped praise on TJC with remarks such as: "It sure is nice sitting in a classroom with a girl," (Don Boyd).

"It is a lot of fun to accidentally bump into a female in the hall," (John Mackey).

"Girls, girls, girls," (Ronald Joplin).

Future bookings for the troupe include Dixie, Troup, The Tyler Chamber of Commerce, Chapel Hill, Arp, and several schools in this area.

Recent appearances of the troupe include appearances at Arp schools, the Lion's Club of Hawkins, First Christian Church, and St. Paul Methodist Church, both of Tyler.

Active members are Caroline Neely, Gene Dodd, Margaret Noe, Barbara White, Amelia Kamel, Charlotte Orman, Derrel "Catfish" Jones, David Womack, John Goodwin, Tommy Strong, Dan Horton, Fred Buchanan, Jack Barron, Dick McCarthy, Bobby Bentholt, Larry Alexander, Jimmy Smith.

31,000 ACTUAL STUDENT INTERVIEWS SHOW COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER LUCKIES TO ALL OTHER BRANDS!

Latest extensive nationwide survey, supervised by college professors, proves Luckies lead again!

In 1952, a survey of colleges throughout the country showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette. In 1953, another far more extensive and comprehensive survey—supervised by college professors and based on more than 31,000 actual student interviews—once again proved Luckies' overwhelming popularity. Yes, Luckies lead again over all other brands, regular or king size ...and by a wide margin! The number-one reason: Luckies' better taste!

—Wag's Wigwam—

By DON TURMAN

Since mid-term the dorm is minus a lot of good football players. The coming fall schedule will find former Apaches playing in a number of different conferences about the state and nation.

L. T. Mobbs will be at the University of Florida, and Jimmy Cheatum will enroll next fall; Mack Pogue and Bill Herchman at Texas; Jimmy Dickey at the University of Houston.

Thomas Evans and Jimmy Murphy will be at Stephen F. Austin; Charlie Dees and Johnny Campbell at Trinity University; Bobby Maxwell and Charles Thomas at Lamar; Bill Medlin, Neville Spiers, Ernest Winfrey, and Bobby Riggs at North Texas State.

Billy Wayne Andrews, who has been plagued with hard luck, for the last two seasons, also enrolled at Trinity University, only to be drafted in the Army. He will leave in March.

David Groce and Don Barker dropped out of college to work. Malcom Ripley joined the Marine Corps.

This year's basketball team is certainly typical of the average at TJC. The two games won from the Bearcats of Lon Morris are ample proof of this.

The first game was a toss-up all the way with the Apaches pulling out in front in the final minutes to win 86-78.

The second game saw the Black and Gold trailing by 13 points going into the last quarter only to forge ahead to win 73-71. The fighting spirit and the will to win of the team, is evident to all.

New faces of athletes around the campus are Marshall Yound of Cleburne, Harold Phelan of Levelland, Bob Allison of Henderson, Bill Powers of Timpson, and Jim Caroline of Philadelphia, Penn. Phelan, Allison, and Caroline are basketball players and Powers is a football player.

The basketball team has noticed the recent school spirit at the games.

Few Directories For Sale

Approximately fifty students directories are still available for purchase, said Miss Mabel Williams, sponsor of the Engineering Club.

Because the Engineering Club, sponsor of director, sold advertisements, this year's directory sells for only 25 cents compared to most school prices of 35 and 50 cents. The directory, black and gold carrying out the TJC tradition, contains names, addresses, and phone numbers of students, faculty, and administrators of TJC.

TJC NO. 1 QUINTET IN STATE

Apaches Eye National Championship

By WALLACE BARBEE

Coach Floyd Wagstaff's Apaches, definitely considered the No. 1 basketball quintet in the state, have their eye on the National Championship again this year.

They boast a 21 win and 10 loss record and have amassed a total of 2315 points for a 78.6 point per game average. The powerful tribe has allowed their opponents to score only 2041 points for an average of 68.4 points per game.

The black and gold have two victories over the strong Lon Morris Bearcats and have not been beaten by a Texas junior college team. The Apaches have lost 10, but four-year college Wayland administered two of the losses. Northeast Miss., four, Moberly, Mo., one, the University of Houston Cougars one, SMU Colts, one, and the TCU Wogs, the other. However the Apaches have avenged the losses to Houston, SMU, and TCU.

Tyler's leading scorer is one of the finest players in Junior College competition, Jimmy Edelen, of Achille, Okla. The 6'2" sophomore who is considered All-

American material has put 568 points through the hoops for 21.2 average per game.

Edelen's highest scoring performance this year was against the TCU Polywogs, when he dumped in 36 points. However, twice he has scored over 20 points in the first half only to be sidelined after the half by a dislocated shoulder. Against the Lon Morris Bearcats in two games he has put 49 points through the netting.

Probably the best defensive man in the state is Bryan Miller of Dallas. Miller was a former All-American at Tyler in 1949, when Tyler won its first National Championship, before he pulled a stretch in the Marines. He has scored 289 points for a game's average of 12.1. Miller, called great by many this year, is a valuable team man and rebound artist. His play-making has been the deciding factor in several games.

The team is also sparked by fast-ball stealing Tommy Sawyer of Fort Worth. Sawyer, a 6' sophomore, is a long shot artist and flashy ball handler, as well as a talented defensive man. He has scored 321 points for an 13.5 average and like Edelen, is a starter from last year's team.

C. L. Nix, 6'7" sophomore alternates as pivot man and forward for the squad. He is second in scoring with 390 points for a 14.4 average. He is a valuable rebound man and is a former All-stater for Laneville.

A course in debate carrying three hours credit for sophomores, is open to sophomores and freshmen.

IN THE still of the night—high above a sleeping American city—an unidentified aircraft is spotted. In a matter of seconds a lightning-like jet interceptor takes to the air. Unerringly, with an Aircraft Observer showing the way, the Air Force F-94 Night Fighter speeds to intercept the stranger. The Aircraft Observer is the man behind the pilot—the officer who keeps America's planes flying on course and on target. Without him the Air Force couldn't do its job.

What is the Aircraft Observer?

He's a Radar Officer . . . employing an all seeing eye that penetrates where human sight fails.

He's an Aircraft Performance Engineer Officer . . . knowing everything there is to know about his plane . . . keeping it fit for the skies and ready for action.

He's a Navigation Officer . . . plotting his plane's course . . . with an entire crew depending on him for a safe flight.

He's a Bombardment Officer . . . in full control of the plane over the target area . . . the Air Force Officer who "lowers the boom" on the enemy.

What the Aircraft Observer gets

He earns over $5,000 a year. His silver Aircraft Observer wings give him prestige and distinction, and he wears the bars of an Air Force Lieutenant. They mark him as the eyes, ears, and brains of America's Number One flying team.

What it takes to be an Aircraft Observer

The Aircraft Observer must be sound of limb, keen of mind, and above all, must have the determination to be the best.

To qualify as an Aircraft Observer you must be single, between 19 and 26½ years old, and a high school graduate. However, it will be better for you and the Air Force if you stay in college and graduate before you apply. Then you, too, can be one of the best . . . as an Aircraft Observer.
